<sup>1</sup>(c) "fugitive criminal" means any person accused or convicted of an extradition offence committed within the jurisdiction of any Foreign State who is in or suspected of being in some part of the Union of Burma whether or not the offence committed by such person is triable by any Court within the Union :

<sup>1</sup>(d) "High Court" means the High Court as defined by the Code of Criminal Procedure for the time being in force.

SURRENDER OF FUGITIVE CRIMINALS IN CASE OF FOREIGN STATES.

3. (1) Where a requisition is made to the President of the Union by the Government of any Foreign State for the surrender of a fugitive criminal of that State, who is in or is suspected of being in the Union of Burma, the President of the Union or may, if he thinks fit, issue an order to any Magistrate who would have had jurisdiction to inquire into the crime if it had been an offence committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction, directing him to inquire into the case.

***FOOT NOTE

1. Clause (a), (e) and (g) were omitted and clause (b), (c) and (f) were re-lettered as clauses (a), (b) and (e) ; clause (b) as re-lettered was substituted and clause (c) inserted by the Union of Burma (Adaptation of Laws) Order, 1948.

(2) The Magistrate so directed shall issue a summons or warrant for the arrest of the fugitive criminal according as the case appears to be one in which a summons or warrant would ordinarily issue.

(3) When such criminal appears or is brought before the Magistrate, the Magistrate shall inquire into the case in the same manner and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the case were one triable by the Court of Session or High Court, and shall take such evidence as may be produced in support of the requisition and on behalf of the fugitive criminal, including any evidence to show that the crime of which such criminal is accused or alleged to have been convicted is an offence of a political character or is not an extradition offence.

(4) If the Magistrate is of opinion that a Primâ facie case is made out in support of the requisition, he may commit the fugitive criminal to prison to await the order of the President of the Union.

(5) If the Magistrate is of opinion that a Primâ facie case is not made out in support of the requisition, or if the case is one which is bailable under the provision of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Magistrate may release the fugitive criminal on bail.

(6) The Magistrate shall report the result of his inquiry to the President of the Union and shall forward, together with such report, any written statement which the fugitive criminal may desire to submit for the consideration of the President of the Union.

(7) If the President of the Union is of opinion that such report or written statement raises an important question of law, he may make an order referring such question of law to the High Court, and the fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until such question has been decided.

(8) If, upon receipt of such report and statement or upon the decision of any such question, the President of the Union is of opinion that the fugitive criminal ought to be surrendered, he may issue a warrant for the custody and removal of such criminal and for his delivery at a place and to a person to be named in the warrant.

(9) It shall be lawful for any person to whom a warrant is directed in pursuance of sub-section (8), to receive, hold in custody and convey the person mentioned in the warrant, to the place named in the warrant, and, if such person escapes out of any custody to which he may be delivered in pursuance of such warrant, he may be re-taken as a person accused of an offence against the law of the Union of Burma may be re-taken upon an escape.

(10) If such a warrant as is prescribed by sub-section (8) is not issued and executed in the case of any fugitive criminal, who has been committed to prison under sub-section (4), within two months after such committal, the High Court may, upon application made to it on behalf of such fugitive criminal and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the President of the Union, order such criminal to be discharged unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

4. (1) Where it appears to any Magistrate of the first class or any Magistrate specially empowered by the President of the Union in this behalf that a person within the local limits of his jurisdiction is a fugitive criminal of a Foreign State, he may, if he thinks fit, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person, on such information or complaint and on such evidence as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime of which, he is accused or has been convicted had been committed within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

(2) The Magistrate shall forthwith report the issue of a warrant under this section to the Governor.

(3) A person arrested on a warrant issued under this section shall not be detained more than two months unless within that period the Magistrate receives an order made with reference to such person under section 3, sub-section (1).

(4) In the case of a person arrested or detained under this section the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to bail shall apply in the same manner as if such person were accused of committing in the Union of Burma the crime of which he is accused or has been convicted.

5. (1) If the President of the Union is of opinion that the crime of which any fugitive of a Criminal of a Foreign State is accused or alleged to have been convicted is of character, he may, if he thinks fit, refuse to issue any order under section 3, sub-section (1).

(2) The President of the Union may also at any time stay any proceedings taken under this Chapter and direct any warrant issued under this Chapter to be cancelled and the person for whose arrest such warrant has been issued to be discharged.
